Nichols - Wooldridge

Mrs. Bertha Martin returned to her home here after attending the wedding and reception in Bedford, of her cousin, Betty Jean Wooldridge. Mrs. Martin visited her aunt, Mrs. Emma Martin, in Roanoke; Mr. and Mrs. Tucker Cheatham, in Lynchburg, and spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Simms at Rustburg, while on her trip.

Bedford, Va.- Miss Jean Elizabeth Wooldridge, daughter of Mrs. M. E. Wooldridge and the late Mr. Wooldridge, and Cecil Franklin Nichols, of Buckingham, were united in marriage on Saturday, October 22, at 4 P. M. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Nichols, of Huddleston.

The Rev. J. Wilson Rowe, Jr., and Dr. J. H. Grey performed the ceremony in the Bedford Presbyterian Church. A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Robert Johnson, organist, and William Yowell, Jr., soloist.

Homer Wooldridge, uncle of the bride, gave her in marriage. She wore a floor length gown of white chantilly lace over satin, fashioned with a strapless bodice, full skirt, and long sleeved lace jacket. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a lace cloche and she carried a white Prayer Book with a white orchid showered in stephanotis.

Miss Wanda Wyse Wooldridge was her sister's maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Paul Huddleston; and Mrs. Walter Britton, of Richmond.

Charles R. Nichols served his brother as best man. Ushers were Leslie T. Richardson, Blacksburg; and Randolph Wilson, Buckingham.

Following the ceremony, the bride's mother entertained with a reception at the Bedford Country Club. After a wedding trip to New Orleans, La., the couple will reside in Farmville.

Appomattox High School lost to E. C. Glass, of Lynchburg, 35 to 0, in football game in Lynchburg last Friday night.

Richmond defeated Davidson, 19 to 0, last Saturday.

Washington Senators trade Vernon and Porterfield to Red Sox.

Carver-Price School News

Hello Readers! Patrons and friends are again extended a cordial invitation to attend "Open House," Thursday, November 10, at 8:00 P. M., in observing American Education Week. All patrons have been issued a personal invitation to attend. "Visit Your Schools" is being emphasized, and parents are urged to come. A teachers' chorus will sing. Dr. Aubrey Keesee, Supervisor of Education for Appomattox County, will speak; also Principal R. E. Patrick, and Rev. R. Q. Lawing. We will be looking for each of you.

The basketball game played Friday night, November 4, between the Carver-Price Panthers and Former Carver Students, was won by the Panthers, 31-28. Those playing on the Carver Team were: Raymond Lawing, George Jennings, James Williams, Walter Jones, James Gafford, with James Ferguson, Joe Robinson, and Herbert Williams substituting. Those playing on the Former Students team were: Charles Walker, Buddy Brown, John Scott, John Browder, and Eugene Browder.

Now that the basketball season is approaching, everything pertains to it. We are looking forward to having a good, new team this year. The Varsity graduated last year, so this year the team will be practically all new members. We will be rooting for you!

Last Monday a social was held in the gym for the benefit of the "Harvest Festival." On November 11, a movie will be shown for this drive. A Championship basketball game will be played Wednesday, November 9, at 1:00 P. M. to determine champions — the 8th or 9th grade.

Allen Watkins, a June graduate, is now attending West Virginia State College in Charleston, West Virginia. He is majoring in Biology. He writes home that he is enjoying every moment of his work, and finds it most interesting, hard work, and that this year's Freshman Class is a very large one. We will be anxious to see Allen and talk with him about his experiences when he returns home for the holidays.

Until next week, our thought: "Teach me my days to number, and apply my trembling heart to wisdom."

1507 Persons X-Rayed In Mobile Clinic

The largest number ever to use the service—1507—passed through the Mobile TB X-ray Clinic during its five-day visit, just concluded in Appomattox County.

Dr. H. E. Jenkins, Health Director, expressed much satisfaction with the results, but said he could not forget the sobering fact that the number represents only 26% of the population over 15, those eligible to receive this service.

"The result of the clinic is due in large part to the excellent work done by the Appomattox County Tuberculosis Association, and we wish to express at this time our sincere appreciation to them, and to all volunteer workers who assisted in any way in making this Health program successful," Dr. Jenkins said.

"While we are gratified with the results achieved, we feel that more people should have taken advantage of the free facilities to protect themselves, their families, and communities from the disease," he said.

"Whatever else has been accomplished, we are pleased with one result that we feel was achieved: the people of the community have been made more health conscious regarding tuberculosis," the director concluded.
